

Guest Lecture

Faculty of Education feels elated to share the report of the Guest Lecture held on 06/04/2023 at 09:30am with B. Ed first and second year students. The session was chaired by Dr. V. Kavitha Asst. Prof, Dept of English, Anna Adarsh College for Women on "Communicative skill". She emphasized the importance of both mother tongue and English language. Learning English can be challenging, but there are definitely no shortcuts. Also she insisted that the key is to practice both formal and informal communication regularly and to focus on proper pronunciation. Over all the whole session was interactive and highly beneficial.

