

Alumni Lecture-Series five on 'The Joy of Teaching'

Greetings! The Faculty of Education is delighted to present the report of the Alumni Lecture-Series five on 'The Joy of Teaching' held on 31/01/2024 at Phase II campus, Adayalampattu. The session, hosted by Ms. M. Pavithra, PG Assistant, Daniel Thomas Matriculation Higher Secondary School, Poonamalle, Chennai. The speaker elevated the joy of teaching experience by sharing personal anecdotes, inspiring stories, and practical insights. Through their passionate delivery and genuine enthusiasm, they ignited a spark in their audience, fostering a deeper appreciation for the profound impact of teaching. Their ability to connect with their listeners on an emotional level and to convey the inherent joy and fulfillment found in the profession left a lasting impression, enhancing the collective understanding and celebration of the teaching journey. The session was entirely interactive. The Faculty of Education extends heartfelt gratitude to our Honorable President for granting us the opportunity to host an event that instilled a positive mindset among aspiring teachers. We also express sincere appreciation to all executives for their unwavering support.
