Day 1: 15.12.2021

Faculty of Education feels happy in sharing the report of the first day workshop on 'Research Ethics and Management of Resources' held on 15. 12. 2021 at 2:00 p.m. scheduled for 3 days in collaboration with Stella Matutina College of Education. The session began with a welcome note followed by the inspiring and motivating inaugural address by Dr.S.Geethalakshmi, Vice Chancellor, Dr.MGR ERI and stimulating felicitation address by Rev. Sr. Pauline Mary, Secretary, Stella Matutina College of Education. Prof. Dr. A. John Lawrence Associate Professor of English, Saint Xavier's College of Education, Palayamkottai, the resource person of day one session enthralled the audience with an elaborate deliberation on the topic 'APA 7th edition style' of indexing in-text references for all formats of book, journal article, web document and newspaper. The guest listed out the four widely-used referencing styles MLA (Modern Languages Association) system, the APA (American Psychological Association) system, the Harvard system, and the MHRA (Modern Humanities Research Association) system and elaborated the different style of referencing and citation for different discipline. The session was a blessing for the research scholars how and where the literature has been drawn to support the point and how one should ensure that the writing connects with the literature. The session had an insight on the three main methods for incorporating the ideas and research of other authors into the document:

- Quoting: copying the source information word for word
- Paraphrasing: putting the source information into other words and phrases
- Summarizing: creating a shortened version of the source information

Day 2: 16.12.2021

Faculty of Education feels elated to share the report of the second day workshop on 'Research Ethics and Management of Resources' held on 16. 12. 2021 at 2:00 p.m. scheduled for 3 days in collaboration with Stella Matutina College of Education. The session commenced with a congenial welcome note followed by the introduction of the resource person. The resource person of second day session on 'Open Access Resources for Teaching, Learning and Research' by Dr. J. Arumugam, Librarian, PSG College of Technology, Coimbatore engrossed the participants with an intricate reflection on the open access e-books, e-journals, ETD, e-Thesis and Dissertations and open library. As Open Access (OA) publications reduce permission requirements and eliminate price barriers for readers for researchers, teachers, journalists, policy makers and the general public without a subscription and as it receives more citations than subscription publications the guest elaborated on Open Access publications. Best referencing tools was also listed to the participants and he also pointed out the tools that are available for the Qualitative and Quantitative Research. The session was a complete package on open access resources and tools for the demand of the current generation to access instantly.

Day 3: 17.12.2021

Faculty of Education feels delighted to share the report of the third day workshop on 'Research Ethics and Management of Resources' held on 17. 12. 2021 at 2:00 p.m. scheduled for 3 days in collaboration with Stella Matutina College of Education. Professor Dr. B. William Dharma Raja Professor and Head, Department of Education from ManonmaniamSundaranar University, Tirunelveli on 'Research Ethics' provided guidelines for the responsible conduct of research and how it educates and monitors scientists conducting research to ensure a high ethical standard. The guest listed the following ethical principles to avoid bias in experimental design, data analysis, data interpretation, peer review, personnel decisions, grant writing, expert testimony, and other aspects of research and listed 4 criteria define prideful authorship

- Substantial contribution to the conception and design for the data acquisition are the data analysis and interpretation
- Researcher must have contributed to draft the manuscript for critical revision of the intellectual content of the publication
- The researcher must approve the final version before publication
- The researcher must be able to accept responsibility for being accountable for the work

The session was a complete package of dos and don'ts in the journey of research.

The three-day workshop on 'Research Ethics and Management of Resources' came to the closer with the motivational valedictory address by Dr Radhika, Additional Registrar, phase 2 campus followed by the vote of thanks proposed by Dr Alma Dean Research, Stella Matutina College of Education and National Anthem.
