CONTENT

Department of Information Technology organized the International Webinar on "Covid-19, An Opportunity not a threat" on 09.06.2021 at 3.30 pm. The webinar started with the welcome address given by Dr. N. Kanya, Head of the Department, Department of Information Technology. Our honorable Vice Chancellor Dr. S. Geetha Laskshmi gave the felicitation address in which she mentioned the impact of the devastating coronavirus COVID-19.

Then our vice chancellor Dr. S. Geetha Laskshmi launched our department newsletter "TECHVOICE". The "TECHVOICE" is a complete student made newsletter which would be released every month with the technical articles and innovative findings from students and faculty members, details of events conducted in the month and small tech bytes.

The guest speaker of the day Dr. Emmanuel Oppong Afriyie from Valley View University, Oyibi, Ghana. was introduced by Dr. T. Nalini, Professor, Department of CSE. Dr. Emmanuel Oppong Afriyie handled the session on "Covid-19, An Opportunity not a threat" in which he covered the opportunities that has been created by the COVID-19 pandemic. He listed all the technologies used when we stay at home for example, mobile application for ecommerce, online transaction, business continuity, online delivery apps, artificial intelligence and many more. The sessions was very interested and informative. The answered all the queries raised by the participants.
