INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION & STRATEGIC ALLIANCES

VOLUME -2

From the Desk of the President

Er. ACS. Arun Kumar

I am immensely happy to note that our International Relations & Collaboration Cell is offering the Volume II for informing their achievements of executing MoU's with various institutes and organizations in India and abroad to facilitate the upward development of our students who wish to develop academically and professionally. It is in fact, a great achievement as our faculty and students were exposed to the various cultures and knowledge portals across the globe. These exchange programs have been received well by our students and faculty. Our programs have established constant interaction and exchange of ideas between the faculty working in our university and faculty/scientists/researchers in other institutions in India and abroad. The Student and Faculty exchange Programs of Dr MGR Educational and Research Institute (University with Graded Autonomy Status) are open to the academic community across the world to indulge in the sharing of knowledge and skills to build a global community establishing that shared knowledge is knowledge invented.

I congratulate the International Relations and Collaboration Cell for informing the ongoing and successfully completed exchange programs through yet another illuminating volume. May this service be helpful to our students in their search for knowledge and advancement.

From the Desk of Vice-Chancellor

Dr. S. Geethalakshmi

I congratulate the University's International Relations and Collaboration Cell for the Volume II which has chronologically recorded the MoU's with universities and organizations abroad and in India, collaborations like joint National and International conferences, seminars and symposium. As the Academic Head of the university I interacted with the faculty and students on their returning from universities abroad, and was happy to note how helpful was the exchange program to know about the culture and language of the people. When such is the benefit of such opportunities, I request each and every department under the banner Dr. MGR Educational Research Institute to collaborate with different universities for disseminating knowledge among the academic community.

University faculty and students can apply to participate in short-term exchange programs with university partners around the world. My congratulation to the International Relations and Collaboration Cell for their exemplary services.

From the Desk of the Registrar

Prof. Dr. C.B. Palanivelu

I am elated to find the achievement of the University's International Relations and Collaboration Cell in facilitating the signing up of MoU's with various Universities, Colleges, Industries and Research Bodies in India and abroad. It is indeed a memorable moment for every faculty who has strived hard to execute MoU's and work towards collaborative teaching and learning process, research projects, and staff and students exchange programs, to see the achievement of the Departments and University being documented beautifully as a Volume.

I congratulate the International Relations and Collaboration Cell for bringing out the Volume II of International Collaborative Activities.

Faculty of Pharmacy, Dr. M.G.R. Educational and Research Institute, Chennai, under the benevolence of our Honorable President sir and Honorable Secretary sir we expressing our heartfelt thanks to Prof.Dr.S.GeethaLakshmi our Vice Chancellor mam for her constant support and guidance.

Faculty of Pharmacy, Dr.M.G.R Educational and Research Institute, on behalf of the 60th National Pharmacy Week celebrations, signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Mediopharm Private Limited (MPL) Chennai on 18th November 2021 at MPL Chennai with the goal to enrich our students with Practical skill based learning and agreement with cooperation in research collaborations and student and faculty exchanges would be mutually beneficial.

As a Principal, Faculty of Pharmacy assured that this understanding would develop Industry Institute relations by providing assistance from Faculty members for collaborative research in process/product development, modification, modernization or troubleshooting of industry.

Mr.Sanjay Dasmohapatra President, MPL, asserted that they would provide hands on training in their industrial environment to the students of Dr. M.G.R. Educational and Research Institute to improve their practical skills and train the students professionally and cooperate in a variety of joint academic and educational activities. The meeting ended with discussion on the development of products in Pharma field.

We once again thank our management for their constant support, guidance and providing us the right platform for all our ventures.

“The students of the Future will demand the learning support that is appropriate for their context. Nothing more, nothing less”. In agreement to the above quote, Faculty of Pharmacy is constantly striving to provide our students, a skill based learning. As an additional measure, Faculty of Pharmacy is signing an, “Memorandum of Understanding” (MoU) with Medopharm Private Limited (MPL), a renowned Pharmaceutical Industry for enriching the Industrial–Institute relationship. Some of the salient features of the MoU are

- 1.Practical Training of Dr. M.G.R. UNIVERSITY students at MPL
- 2.MPL would accommodate B.Pharm students who have completed the 6th semester of their program in such a number that MPL deems convenient to it for the purpose of imparting industrial training
- 3.Organization of Joint conferences and seminars.
- 4.MPL may depute its personnel as visiting faculty at Dr. M.G.R. UNIVERSITY to reach any one of the regular course or specialized topics.
- 5.MPL may seek assistance/guidance of Dr. M.G.R. UNIVERSITY, faculty members in product/process modification, modernization, troubleshooting etc.
- 6.MPL would allow the industrial visits of students to provide the exposure to various equipment, instruments etc.

Faculty of Pharmacy is glad to inform everyone that this active MoU will be signed at Medopharm Private Limited premises tomorrow (18-11-2021) on behalf of the 60th National Pharmacy Week Celebrations with the benedictions of our Honourable President sir and Honourable Secretary sir. In this moment we would like to dedicate our sincere gratitude to Honourable President sir and Honourable Secretary sir for their encouragement and motivation in all our endeavours.

Exploiting Marine Bacteria for Production of Value-added Biomaterials from Renewable Resources: An Effort towards Embracing Circular Economy'

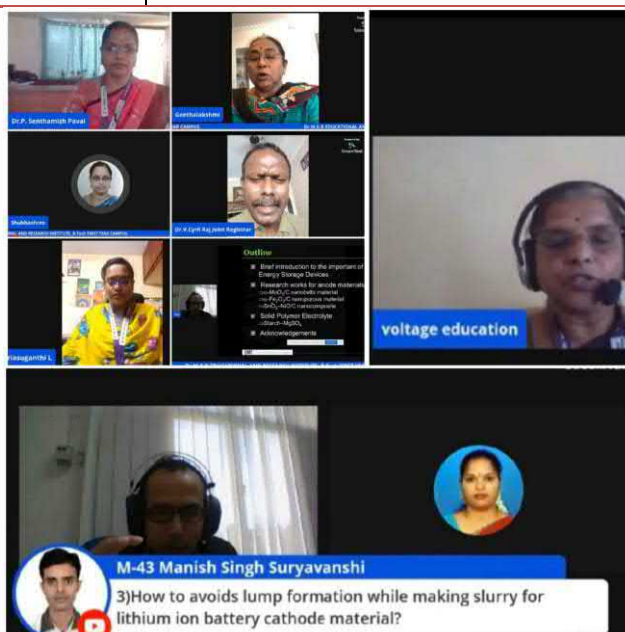

First year B. Tech. & Faculty of Education in collaboration with Office of International Relations organized an International Webinar on 'Exploiting Marine Bacteria for Production of Value-added Biomaterials from Renewable Resources: An Effort towards Embracing Circular Economy' on 23.03.2021 The Resource person Ts.Dr.Kesaven Bhubalan, Associate Professor, Head of Marine Science & Acting Deputy Dean of Talent and Research at the Faculty of Science and Marine Environment, Universiti Malaysia Terengganu (UMT) explained the need of the hour in protecting the Marine Bacteria from getting exploited and to produce Biomaterials from the renewable resources and to increase the economy. The session was an eye opener in the field of protecting the marine eco system for the younger generation. Marine microorganisms are unique to tolerate high salt concentration and can evade toxicity of different metal ions. However, these marine microbes are not sufficiently explored for their capability of metal nanoparticle synthesis. Although, marine water is one of the richest sources of gold in the nature, however, there is no significant publication regarding utilization of marine micro-organisms to produce gold nanoparticles. Therefore, there might be a possibility of exploring marine bacteria as nanofactories for AuNP biosynthesis.

Global Career Guidance & Foreign Entrance Exams

Career Counseling is a process that will help you to know and understand yourself and the world of work in order to make career, educational and life decisions. Selecting the right career is very important as career spans one's adult life and defines an individual, the kind of lifestyle one has, the people one interacts with. In short one's career has an impact on the quality of one's life.

Applying for higher education abroad is a critical decision, both financially and emotionally. Therefore, it is mandatory to invest adequate time and effort in order to make the right career decision.

The world is filled with various career choices ranging from medicine to mass communication, engineering to event management, marine biology to information technology. To select the right career from the various options available today has become a daunting and challenging process. A large number of students continue to choose a career based merely on the fact that their friends are doing the same thing or because their parents told them to do so. This, however, may not be the best way to go about it.

Aptitude: We assess different abilities which helps identify fields one will excel in

- Interest: Helps us identify the kind of activities and work one would like to do
- Personality: It involves multidimensional personality assessment that helps understand who one truly is, one's character traits, qualities and shortcomings.

- Understanding These Internal Factors Is Very Important And Helps At The Following Stages:

- Subject selection
- Curriculum selection
- Stream selection
- Bachelors degree selection
- Masters degree selection
- Career change/shift

- Identify the needs of students so that the appropriate test may be administered from the battery of test available with us.

- 3-4 hours online / paper-pencil psychometric test.
- Report given by a qualified psychologist.

- Report :-

- An explanation of the report and how to use it.
- Graphic scores of the aptitude, interest and personality tests.
- An overview narrative report and summary of the results.
- A telephonic consultation with a certified psychologist with a prior appointment.
- The results are not a benchmark but an indicator which gives you a platform to work on.
- Study / Work options in India and overseas.

International Conference – Electric Vehicle and Engineering in Medical Science-ICEVEMS

The Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering in association with IEEE MGR Student Chapter and Office of International Relations & Collaboration Cell organized an International Conference on Electric Vehicle and Engineering in Medical Science-ICEVEMS on 23.11.2021 and 24.11.2021. The International Conference was conducted through Streamyard studio and aired live in EEE Official YouTube Channel. The Conference was framed with 4 technical sessions.

The objective of the ICEVEMS was to provide a world-class platform for the participants to acquire ideas and experience through virtual mode. In addition, it will help the participants to establish the latest research and results of scientists in E-Vehicle and their impact in future scope, Engineering in medical science research as well as to find an international linkage for future collaborations in their career path.

The first day of the Conference started with an inaugural function with an inaugural note by Vice Chancellor, Dr.S. Geethalakshmi madam which was followed by the felicitation address delivered by Dr.V.Cyril Raj, Additional Registrar. The welcome address was delivered by Dr.S. Bhuvaneswari, HoD/EEE.

The technical session on day 1, session 1 started at 10.00 a.m. The Speaker was Dr. Kesavan Bhubalan, Head of Marine Biology Program, Faculty of Science and Marine Environment, Universiti Malaysia Terengganu who presented on the topic “Application of Polyhydroxyalkanoate as Adjuvant in Triggering Immune Response against Haemorrhagic Septicaemia”. The Speaker was introduced by Dr.K. Sujatha, Dean-Consultancy. The speaker presented on his research work on the usage of biomaterials like Polyhydroxyalkanoate and biodegradable materials which are used in medical applications especially in vaccines for livestock and how they were treated using the Polyhydroxyalkanoate polymers against Haemorrhagic Septicaemia. The session ended with Q & A session.

The session 2 of day 1 started at 2.00 p.m. The speaker of the session was Dr. Salisa Abdul Rahman, Associate Professor, Deputy Dean (Academic and Student Affairs), Faculty of Ocean Engineering Technology and Informatics, Universiti Malaysia Terengganu. Dr.R.Sivanand, Asst. Prof/EEE introduced the speaker. Dr.Salisa discussed on her research topic entitled “Development of Intelligent Driving cycle system to evaluate the energy consumption and emissions for Payang water taxi and bas kite driving cycles”. She explained about the new methodology implemented for electric vehicles where a smart and intelligent real time monitoring and control system on Payang water taxi and Bas kite driving cycle was incorporated whereby the energy consumption and emission analysis using the proposed cycle has improved compared to the conventional method. She concluded that the proposed driving cycle can be implemented for hybrid electric vehicle power train (HEV) to overcome exhaust emissions and fuel consumption. The session ended with Q & A session.

The technical session on day 2, session 1 started at 10.00 a.m. The Speaker was Mr. Sathiyalingam Kannaiyan, Research Scholar, National Taiwan University of Science and Technology (NTUST). The Speaker presented on the topic “Recent progress in Magnesium Ion battery”. The speaker was introduced by Ms. Sankari, Asst. Prof/EEE. The speaker discussed about various batteries that are presently implemented in various applications. He also explained about the merits and demerits of Lithium ion battery and the alternate metals used in batteries like Magnesium ion, etc. He elaborated on various metals that can be used as anodes and cathodes in batteries. The session concluded with queries from the participants which were cleared by the speaker.

The technical session on day 2, session 2 started at 02.00 p.m. Dr. Mahajan Sagar Bhaskar, IEEE Senior Member (USA), Associate Editor of IET Power Electronics (UK), Topic Editor of MDPI Electronics (Switzerland), Asst. Professor, Renewable Energy Lab, Dept. of Communications and Networks Engg., College of Engineering, Prince Sultan University, Riyadh 11586, Saudi Arabia. The speaker was introduced by Mr. Raja, Asst. Prof./EEE. The speaker presented on the topic “High order Power Electronics Converter for Electric Vehicle” where he discussed on the series-parallel and plugin vehicular power trains. He elaborated on the power electronics study for EV/charging, energy consumption scenario, photovoltaic energy scenario, various PE photovoltaic configurations. He elucidated on the synthesis of DC-DC Converter in detail. The queries from the participants were cleared by the resource person.

The session 3 on day 2 was started at 03.00 p.m. The Chief Guest was Mr. Gennadii Rogalev, Director, Russian Center of Science and Culture, India. The chief guest was introduced by Dr.S.
