

RUSSIAN FILM CULTURE

Department of Visual Communication & Animation

Films are more than purely entertainment; they spark ideas, discussions and interest. It gives the Passion to the students to get exposure for a film that they love and believe others will love too.

The International Russian Film Festival is an international festival of works of documentary and cinema in Russian, showing and interpreting events, phenomena, traditions of the Russian world, features of the Russian soul and Russian character. The Russian (Russky) Film Festival reflects the Russian outlook and is held to strengthen and prosper the Russian world.

Indian Film maker Mr.Venkatesan and Indian Cinematographer M.Prabhu delivered a thought provoking and remarkable session with our students.

Our students can also produce and Direct films and get screened in the Russian film festival in which they accept feature and documentary films irrespective of the place and time of their creation.

The main criterion for the participation of the film is the correspondence of its design and content to the goals of the film festival. Films created in a foreign language for participation in the festival must be accompanied by subtitles in Russian.

This kind of film festival can open the student's eyes to a new way of watching film and can breathe life into an old classic. This will surely introduce our young students film makers to get introduced to variety of audiences .It's a great way to attract our students who are also a new audiences and generates them a huge buzz in the film area. Around 150 students participated in this Russian film festival.
