

Seminar on Time Management

Department of Visual Communication & Animation

Not all work teams are built the same. Different people have different skills, but everyone works together to pursue the same goals: productivity and success.

Time management skills can be acquired by everyone when following a solid set of habits.

As a team leader and a team member, it's crucial to avoid missed deadlines and deals, high overtime costs, and disappointed bosses and clients.

So we the department of Animation & viscom organized a interdisciplinary session on the "Time management" to get the best out of our precious time.

Pertaining to this, we invited Dr.J.Sridevi, Dean – Centre for professional excellence, Dr. M.G.R. Educational & Research Institute presented a wonderful session of making the utmost use of our time in our rapidly advancing world.

Around 100 students participated from the 2nd year of Animation&Viscom.
